"Happy Fathers Day!"

A father is someone we look up to. He helps us learn our boundries in life and sets a good example for us to follow as we grow into adulthood. His job is ever changing and evolving with the changing times and his changing children! We want to say thank you to all of the dads, step dads, grandpas, uncles, big brothers and friends out there who "raise us up" and put our needs before their own.

"Thank You!"

Fathers of 1900 and Fathers of Today

- In 1900, if a father put a roof over his family's head, he was a success.
- Today, it takes a roof, deck, pool, and 4-car garage. And that's just the vacation home.
- In 1900, a father waited for the doctor to tell him when the baby arrived.
- Today, a father must wear a smock, know how to breathe, and make sure film is in the video camera.
- In 1900, fathers could count on children to join the family business.
- Today, fathers pray their kids will soon come home from college long enough to teach them how to work the computer and set the VCR and DVD players, and cell phones.
- In 1900, fathers shook their children gently and whispered, "Wake up, it's time for school."
- Today, kids shake their fathers violently at 4 a.m., shouting: "Wake up, it's time for hockey practice."
- In 1900, a father came home from work to find his wife and children at the supper table.
- Today, a father comes home to a note: "Jimmy's at baseball, Cindy's at gymnastics, I'm at gym, Pizza in fridge."
- In 1900, a Father's Day gift would be a hand tool.
- Today, he'll get a digital organizer.
- In 1900, "a good day at the market" meant Father brought home feed for the horses.
- Today, "a good day at the market" means Dad got in early on an IPO
